

Two Feet In The Sand can help you

build an effective RESUME that promotes your PERSONAL BRAND

YOU NEED A RESUME

Whether you're currently employed, facing uncertainty in your position, job hunting or ready to graduate, having an up-to-date resume is critically important. You never know when an amazing job opportunity may come your way... or when you unexpectedly may be looking for a new job.

WHAT WE DO FOR YOU

We begin by reviewing your most recent resume, and discussing your career objectives to develop the resume type that best suits your needs and communicates your brand. We assess your experience, skills and education, help organize your thoughts, and determine the style, appearance and content that will differentiate your resume. Next, we create a draft, verify the content and with your feedback, edit together until you are completely satisfied. Finally we proofread, polish and deliver to you a remarkable resume that effectively promotes your personal brand.

INVEST IN YOUR FUTURE

Your

personal brand reflects how

you have utilized your education, skills, knowledge, experience and passion - all uniquely yours - to build your career and establish your reputation. A well-crafted resume and cover letter is what you need to present your brand to a potential new employer. Professional, well-written documents will help get you in the door to interview for the dream job you've been searching for. Sloppy, mistake-laden documents will quickly shut the door on your future. Contact us today to effectively promote your personal brand that sets you apart from the rest.
